

IMPERIAL KNIGHTS

KNIGHTLY HOST

These datasheets allow you to fight Apocalypse battles with your Imperial Knights miniatures. Each datasheet includes the characteristics profiles of the unit it describes, as well as any wargear and special abilities it may have.

KEYWORDS

Throughout this section you will come across keywords that are within angular brackets, specifically <QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE> and <HOUSEHOLD>. These are shorthand for keywords of your own choosing, as described below.

<QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE>

All Imperial Knights owe allegiance to either the Imperium of Man or the Machine Cult of the Adeptus Mechanicus. Even Freeblades, who no longer belong to a Noble house, maintain the oath of allegiance they swore long ago.

Imperial Knights datasheets have the <QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE> keyword. When you include such a unit in your army, you must nominate whether that unit owes its allegiance to the Imperium or the Adeptus Mechanicus. If the former, then you replace the <QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE> keyword in every instance on that unit's datasheet with QUESTOR IMPERIALIS; if the latter, you replace the <QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE> keyword in every instance on that unit's datasheet with QUESTOR MECHANICUS.

For example, if you were to include an Acastus Knight Porphyryon in your army, and you decided it owed allegiance to the Adeptus Mechanicus, its <QUESTOR ALLEGIANCE> keyword is changed to QUESTOR MECHANICUS.

<HOUSEHOLD>

With the exception of Freeblades, all Imperial Knights belong to a Noble household. Imperial Knights datasheets have the <HOUSEHOLD> keyword. When you include such a unit in your army, you must nominate which household that unit is from (unless it is a Freeblade, as described opposite). You then simply replace the <HOUSEHOLD> keyword in every instance on that unit's datasheet with the name of your chosen household. If the unit has the QUESTOR IMPERIALIS keyword, it must come from a household that owes allegiance to the Imperium; if the unit has the QUESTOR MECHANICUS keyword, it must come from a household that owes allegiance to the Adeptus Mechanicus. You can use any of the Noble households that you have read about, or you can make up your own.

For example, if you were to include an Acastus Knight Porphyryon in your army that has the QUESTOR MECHANICUS keyword, you could then decide it was from House Raven. Its <HOUSEHOLD> keyword is then changed to HOUSE RAVEN.

You can instead nominate any Imperial Knight to be a Freeblade, regardless of whether it owes allegiance to the Imperium or the Adeptus Mechanicus. If you do so, replace the <HOUSEHOLD> keyword in every instance on that unit's datasheet with the FREEBLADE keyword.
